

JOB POSTING - HVAC INSTALLATION FOREMAN

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Our S-RAC philosophy stems from delivering real results through; exceptional customer service of our highly trained install and service technicians as well as maintaining a strong pulse on the industry shift towards ecological responsibility. Our answer is dedicated knowledge and competitively priced specialized services that extend beyond conventional heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems.

JOB SUMMARY

The successful candidate must possess the ability to learn and apply company methods, practices, procedures and regulatory requirements regarding the installation of HVAC and associated systems. They will be responsible for leading commercial projects, ordering and maintaining supplies, as well as overseeing teams of crews on various jobsite's. Moreover, they will ensure that large projects are completed on time and on budget. Working hours are generally Monday - Friday, 8 hrs. per day with rotating weekend and holiday shifts.

ACCOUNTABILITY & DUTIES

- Reports to Managing Director
- Install and commission large scale Variable Refrigerant Flow Air Conditioning systems
- Install and trouble shoot Large and Medium sized Commercial Air Conditioning systems
- Manage several projects and crew members
- Coordinate manpower and equipment
- Train our current apprentice technicians
- Ability to analyze and interpret specification, blueprints, building drawings, technical literature, and equipment specifications
- Mitsubishi Factory Training a PLUS
- Keep administrative aspects of projects up to date and remitted to the office in a timely manner
- Committed to 100% customer satisfaction in all aspects of work through effective verbal and written communicative skills to clients, suppliers, and colleagues
- Self motivated and Team oriented, willing to serve as a team member by constructively coaching and learning with others to work more effectively
- Career oriented – open to on-going technical and professional training

QUALIFICATIONS

- Minimum of 3-5 years experience servicing HVAC systems including all types of chillers, rooftop units, package units, heat pumps, fan coil units, boilers, VAV systems, pneumatic/electric/DDC controls, and refrigeration units
- Valid Journeyman Refrigeration TQ ticket
- Valid driver's license
- Basic personal hand tools for the trade, S-RAC will supply company related tools
- Able to work overtime as required, including weekends, after hours and holidays

Please fax or e-mail all resumes with cover letters to the following

ATTN: S-RAC Human Resources / F: 604.270.4374 / E: hycs.srac@gmail.com

Although all submissions will be reviewed, only successful applicants will be contacted
Thank You for your interest in S-RAC